MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

March 2026

We regret sharing that we need to postpone our annual For Love and Freedom benefit, where we share our stories from the past year and our future dreams with our faithful supporters.

At times in ministry & mission unforeseen circumstances arise. Thank you for your ongoing support, prayers and faithfulness. We will be in touch with our future plans for the benefit as soon as we can. Tickets already purchased for the benefit will be refunded.

We both thank you for and welcome your continued support and prayer. We remain blessed and trusting in the Lord.

Peace Promise Updates

These “gals” sure do love each other and the lives that they are creating. We enjoyed an evening of “Galentine” fun with cookie decorating, chocolate-covered strawberries, and handmade Valentine’s cards filled with messages of love. We ended the evening by seeing the world through our rose-colored glasses!

Some areas of this month would have been hard to navigate without our rose-colored glasses on. We sat in the courtroom, in attorney preps, and made emergency mental health runs. We have felt the weight of worry and the joy of successes. In all of it, we have been able to come together to support each other, looking for the best in every situation. We are not fooled by our rose-colored glasses, believing that life is always going to be easy. Instead, we know it is hard, but our rose-colored glasses let us choose to see the good. Like how after a sleepless night, we can wake up to a message like this. We can be encouraged to do it all over again in hopes that we, too, can put on our rose-colored glasses like this survivor has:

“I am so proud of my family for walking in their faith in the appropriate way God intended for us, and also for my walk and in my journey with God. I know this is where I am supposed to be and where God wants me to be for the first time in life. I am walking directly in my purpose and am exactly where God called me, doing what he called me to do.”

That message was my personal pair of rose-colored glasses that I put on, and that carried me through the next uncertainadventure.

Two businesses. One home. One purpose.
